

What's Fun To Do in Baltimore?!

Fort McHenry National Monument and Historic Shrine: A unit of the National Park Service. Site of the Battle of Baltimore during the War of 1812, where Francis Scott Key was inspired to pen "The Star-Spangled Banner" in September of 1814.

2400 East Fort Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21230
<https://www.nps.gov/fomc/index.htm>

Sagamore Spirit Distillery: The Sagamore Spirit Distillery is open Wednesday through Sunday for guided distillery tours and rye whiskey tastings. Located in the heart of Baltimore's Port Covington neighborhood with stunning waterfront views, Sagamore Spirit also offers a full calendar of indoor and outdoor events, including cocktail classes, glass blowing, and waterfront yoga. Sagamore Spirit is recognized internationally for their American Straight Rye Whiskies and is the recipient of over 100 awards for excellence in taste and packaging. Tours and tastings available. Please call ahead for availability.

301 E Cromwell Street
Baltimore, MD 21230
<https://sagamospirit.com/>

The Walters Art Museum: The Walters Art Museum is a cultural hub in the heart of Baltimore. Located in the city's Mount Vernon neighborhood, the Walters is free for all. The museum's collection spans more than seven millennia, from 5,000 BCE to the 21st century, and encompasses 36,000 objects from around the world. Walking through the museum's historic buildings, visitors encounter a stunning panorama of thousands of years of art, from romantic 19th-century images of French gardens to mesmerizing Ethiopian icons, richly illuminated Qur'ans and Gospel books, ancient Roman sarcophagi, and serene images of the Buddha. The Walters' mission has been to bring art and people together and to create a place where people of every background can be touched by art. Admission to the museum and special exhibitions is always free.

600 N. Charles Street
Baltimore, MD 21201
<https://thewalters.org/>

American Visionary Art Museum: The American Visionary Art Museum is the nation's museum for self-taught, intuitive artistry. Three historic buildings house wonders created by farmers, housewives, mechanics, the disabled, the homeless, as well as the occasional neurosurgeon—all inspired by the fire within. From carved roots to embroidered rags, tattoos to toothpicks, 'the visionary' transforms dreams, loss, hopes, and ideals into powerful works of art. "one of the most fantastic museums anywhere in America" - CNN "Best Museum in Maryland" - USA Today "a temple of outsider art" - New York Times. Tickets: $9.95-15.95. Children 6 and under and museum members are free.

800 Key Highway
Baltimore, MD 21230
<https://www.avam.org/>

B&O Railroad Museum: The B&O Railroad Museum, a full affiliate of the Smithsonian Institution and the birthplace of American Railroad, is home to the oldest, most comprehensive collection of railroad artifacts in the Western Hemisphere including an unparalleled roster of 19th and 20th century railroad equipment. You'll enjoy exploring our expansive Museum campus, known as the Mount Clare Shops and Station and was the original railroading complex of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad (B&O). Founded in 1827, the B&O had a dramatic economic, social, and cultural impact on our society. Its nearly 200-year history is deeply intertwined with the story of America and helped shape our nation through invention, innovation, and ingenuity. Experience two centuries of American railroading history throughout our campus of historic buildings, exhibitions, interactive displays, and our world-class collection of rolling stock—locomotives, passenger cars, freight cars, and maintenance vehicles. All Aboard!

<https://www.borail.org/>
901 West Pratt Street
Baltimore, MD 21223

Edgar Allan Poe's Grave Site, House and Memorial: Tours of Westminster Burying Grounds and Catacombs: April-November: 1st and 3rd Fridays of each month. (Reservations are required as tours may be canceled for insufficient enrollment.) There is an admission charge for all tours. The cemetery gates are generally open to the public, daily 8:00 a.m. to dusk. Phone: (410) 706-2072 (an answering machine handles calls outside business hours.) The grave, church and cemetery currently belong the Law School of the University of Maryland and are maintained by the Westminster Preservation Trust. (Also be sure to visit The Edgar Allan Poe House & Museum: <https://www.poeinbaltimore.org/>. Reservations required.)

Westminster Cemetery on the southeast corner of Fayette and Greene sts., Baltimore, MD 21201-1768
<https://www.eapoe.org/balt/poegrave.htm>

Baltimore Water Taxi: Somewhere between a water-based bus line and open-air adventure, the Baltimore Water Taxi is the fun, fast, and affordable way to navigate the city. Operating with a crew of licensed Captains and a fleet of USCG inspected commercial passenger vessels along dedicated routes servicing fixed stops in/around the Baltimore harbor. Visit their website to see the latest routes, stops, and ticket offerings. <https://www.baltimorewatertaxi.com/>

Baltimore Museum of Industry: The Baltimore Museum of Industry celebrates the innovators, entrepreneurs and workers who propelled this port city into the industrial age and beyond. From garment making to airplane manufacturing, food canning to video game design, visitors to the museum will discover how Baltimore's pioneering spirit built the region's manufacturing might and continues to shape Maryland today. Located in an 1860s oyster cannery on a five-acre waterfront campus, the BMI offers dynamic exhibitions, live demonstrations, engaging tours and hands-on activities for guests of all ages.

1415 Key Highway
Baltimore, Maryland 21230
<https://www.thebmi.org/>

Great Blacks in Wax Museum: The National Great Blacks In Wax Museum is among the nations most dynamic cultural and educational institutions. Because it is a wax museum committed solely to the study and preservation of African American history, it is also among the most unique. Primarily, the presentation of life-size, life-like wax figures highlighting historical and contemporary personalities of African ancestry defines its uniqueness.

1601-03 East North Avenue
Baltimore, Maryland 21213
<http://greatblacksinwax.org>

Babe Ruth Birthplace and Museum: The city's native son, the Great Bambino, is celebrated in the house he was born in, now a museum stocked with memorabilia like the catcher's mitt he used while learning baseball, the bat from his famed 1927 season and exhibits honoring the Orioles. The Babe Ruth Birthplace Museum is located at 216 Emory Street, three blocks west of Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Just follow the 60 baseballs painted on the sidewalk from the Babe Ruth statue at the ballpark to the Museum.

216 Emory Street
Baltimore, MD 21230
<https://baberuthmuseum.org/babe-ruth-birthplace-museum/>

Baltimore Harbor Sightseeing Cruise: Baltimore is a fascinating – and beautiful – city to see from the water. Sightseeing along the waterways will include many attractions of the Inner Harbor such as the iconic Domino Sugar sign, Fort McHenry, the Key Bridge, Fell's Point, Under Armour and more. Watermark's well trained crew makes getting on the water in Baltimore easy, safe and fun! Their boats have full cash bar service with light snacks available for purchase and restrooms on board. Our Baltimore based vessels are handicapped accessible and climate controlled.

<https://watermarkjourney.com/public-cruises-water-taxi/baltimore-cruises/>