

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of the activity, participants will be able to:

- Identify and differentiate between dementia syndromes in the elderly.
- Describe how psychedelic psychotherapy is thought to alleviate depressive symptoms.
- Review the epidemiology of firearm suicide
- Increase audience understanding of the implications of gun violence in this country.
- Discuss steps patients can take to reduce risk of firearm injury and death in their homes.
- Describe steps that can be taken to help patients get off opiates.
- Describe the basic tenets of trauma-informed care and gain insight on the factors associated to health worker burnout.
- List techniques to provide comfort while treating patients during the perinatal period.
- Learn about the variable suicide risk in the child and adolescent population.
- Increase awareness of Bidirectional relationships between COVID and other mental health conditions.
- List which psychiatric conditions are currently FDA approved for the use of Electroconvulsive Therapy.
- Identify 3 important harms associated with delirium
- Review some of the evidence that may explain long-term consequences of COVID infection.
- Identify changes in DSM-5-TR
- Describe the extent of opiate addiction in US history
- Understand the link between psychiatric illness and creativity.